

PART OF MAYSVILLE PIKE TO BE REBUILT

While a visitor in this city recently at the office of the Paris Commercial Club, James W. Norton, of the State Highway Department at Frankfort, stated that a portion of the Lexington pike, just outside of the city limits of Paris, will be reconstructed as soon as arrangements are completed with the Kentucky Traction & Terminal Company. It was thought these arrangements would be completed in the next few days. Work will begin in about ten days, or as soon as the necessary details are arranged.

The penetration course is being laid on the Owingsville road between Cane Ridge and Paris. When completed this road will undoubtedly be the principally used one between Lexington, Paris and Owingsville.

The work of replacing the wooden bridges between the city limits of Paris and Millersburg with concrete which was part of Bourbon county's agreement with the State, has been started, and the short detours necessary have been confined to small areas by means of temporary bridges across the streams.

OFFICIALS FIND LIQUOR IN RAIDS

Chief of Police Link and Patrolman Lusk, in a series of raids Saturday and Sunday, corralled a supply of contraband liquor at a number of places in the city. At the home of Fisher Williams, colored, on Short street, they found one and one-half pints of moonshine. Williams was not at home at the time the search was made. The home of Anna Goodman, colored, in Clayville, when searched, did not yield anything, but the officials say they found a gallon of moonshine secreted in the weeds in the rear of the house, and covered up with old sacks. A blacksmith shop on Sycamore street was also searched, but the officers said they found only a lot of empty bottles which had at some time contained "hootch." No arrests were made.

Superb pitching by Long enabled Cynthiana to defeat the Paris team in the game played at League Park, in Paris, Thursday afternoon, by a score of 2 to 0, and placed the Maidens City team in the lead at that time. Long allowed but five hits and struck out eight men. Parsons pitched a good game for Paris, yielding one run in the first inning and one in the second, holding the visitors helpless afterward. Shortstop Seltz, of the Cynthiana team, sprained his ankle sliding into second base in the second inning and was forced to retire. An argument with Umpire Shaw resulted in the banishment of Cleona, of the Paris team in the fourth inning. The game was one of the fastest of the season, being played in one hour and thirty-seven minutes. The batteries were: For Paris—Parsons and Brockman; for Cynthiana—Long and Wille. Shaw umpired.

Nine innings of poor baseball and one battle royal, followed by the release of three Lexington players, marked one of the most disagreeable affairs that have taken place recently in baseball circles, in the game at Lexington, Saturday, between Paris and Lexington. The tale has been often told and may, perhaps, have gained in the telling, but enough has been said about it. At any rate Paris handed Lexington a defeat by a margin of one run, the final score being 7 to 6. Scout Billy Doyle, of the Detroit Tigers, who was present during the fray, stated that he was sorry he had not been scouting for prize fight candidates instead of base ball players. The batteries were, for Paris, Wills, Gross and Macke, for Lexington, Marks, Landers and Kelly.

The mere details of the game itself are not sufficient to interest the reading public, but the fact that a general riot was staged at a ball game, a thing that has happened more than once where Lexington hoodlums the concerned made the affair more than memorable. It all happened in the second inning, over a decision by Umpire Webb, in calling Nippert out at second when Ciconia hit a grounder to Reistenburg at second. Managers Wills and Deveraux and other players became involved in a scrap and spectators from the grandstand swarmed on the field, staging a scrap that threatened to assume large proportions. As soon as one scrap was stopped another would spring up on another part of the field. Plainly speaking it was a disgrace to baseball, one not to be condoned under any circumstances, and showed more plainly than ever the disposition of Lexington plugs to start a riot when it is to their advantage to do so.

In the game at Lexington Sunday the Paris and Lexington teams repeated the fiasco of Saturday, minus the fighting stunt. Spectators say it was simply a step from the ridiculous to worse. Lexington won the game by a score of 15 to 7, moving up to third place in the Blue Grass League race. The unsavory advertisement the game received from the scrapping match of Saturday had a tendency to increase the attendance, and one of the largest crowds of the season gathered to see the contest. Perhaps most of the fans expected to see another war, but were disappointed. The Paris pitching staff was wilder than a ten-pound bass hooked on a fishing line. Blakefield was knocked out of the box, and was succeeded by Wills, who fared no better. Parsons came to the rescue and finished the game, issuing passes to first six Lexington men. Paris spectators say the game was a travesty. Three umpires officiated. On one close play one umpire called a foul, the other called it fair, and the third said he didn't see the play. The Paris fans are considering asking for a program giving the cast of characters in the next comedy between Paris and Lexington. The batteries were: For Paris, Blakefield, Wills, Parsons and Brockman; for Lexington, Park and Kelley. The umpires were Marrs, Dawson and Goodman.

The Clifton junior baseball team will play the Paris playgrounds team at Woodland Park, in Lexington, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock. This is a return game, the Clifton winning the first game at the Paris playgrounds recently.

The Winchester team has purchased pitcher Eisenman and outfielder Bell from the Maysville club, to report immediately. A new catcher, from the Louisville Colonels, has also been signed, to report for Thursday's game.

Following the disagreeable "rough house" in the game between Paris and Lexington, at Lexington, Saturday, Manager Pat Deveraux, Joe Burnham and Pete Amato were released by Business Manager Jess Morton. A new first baseman from Cincinnati has been signed for the Lexington team.

On League Park grounds in Paris Saturday afternoon, a team of players picked from the four Church League teams of Paris defeated the North Middletown Christian church team by a score of 10 to 0. The batteries were: For Paris, Burnett and Owens; for North Middletown, Stevenson and Pickett. The game was umpired by W. V. Shaw, of Paris. The North Middletown team has made an enviable record this season, having a large string of victories to their credit.

The boys' baseball team from the Clifton playgrounds at Lexington, defeated the team made up of boys from the various Paris playgrounds, in a game played on Hancock Field in this city, Thursday afternoon. The score was 16 to 0. The Paris playgrounds team will play the Lexington team at Woodland Park, Lexington, next Thursday.

The Escondido team played the Jacksonville team on the latter's grounds Sunday afternoon, Jacksonville winning by a score of 10 to 6. The Black's Cross Road team challenged the winner, and met defeat by a score of 7 to 6.

The Baptist and Methodist teams in the Church League will play at Hancock Field this (Tuesday) afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Friday's contest between the Presbyterians and Christians will be staged on the same grounds.

BASEBALL NOTES

More sunshine practice and less moonshine. A few boozers on the team is thoroughly demoralizing.

We suggest that manager Wills take his pitchers out and have them practice throwing at a dishpan about two hours a day.

What we need is a few pitchers that can locate home plate.

Sunday's game is not worthy of mention—they all played rotten.

We understand that our pitchers claim they can not pitch off the high mound in the Lexington tennis court. If that is the case, why not build a mound in one corner of our lot and let our boys learn to pitch from it.

When one of our pitchers has to retire on account of being lambasted out of the box, or not able to find the plate, they seem to think it a great joke, and come to the bench laughing.

Paris is one of the best ball towns in the League. But if things continue as they are there will be no one to go to the games.

"Boost for Paris." We have always contended that the cheapest thing in Lexington was a ticket to Paris. We go and fill their stands—now we will see how many come to fill our stands.

What we want is base ball. We do not expect to win every game, but we do hate to see them tossed away, as they tossed Sunday's game after having it tucked in the bat bag and fast asleep.
